CHRIST-CENTERED

learning, shining a bright light on the gift of being God's child

8C:71 2T28

COMMUNITY

with family and friends, as reading together creates special bonds and memories

CPH.ORG/READS

COMMITMENT

to a lifestyle of reading, so that curious questions continue year-round

"IN HIM WE LIVE AND MOVE AND HAVE OUR BEING."

Dear Principal,

For the past three years, Concordia Publishing House has offered a summer reading program called Read Like a Lutheran. We've loved seeing how students across the country have joined the challenge to read more books about Jesus each summer!

This year, the program has a new name, using a popular tagline for the program—CPH Reads.

We're still on a mission to keep kids reading books and the Bible all summer long. This is still, at its core, a Lutheran reading program because it's still all about Jesus!

This summer, embrace change, but hold tight to God's unchanging Word. Endure challenges, but trust in God's faithfulness. Echo timeless truths, but keep learning.

From May 26 through August 5, your students can join with thousands of kids from across the country on a journey of faith-inspired reading. Here's what to do to get started:

- 1. Ask your teachers to pass out the enclosed reading logs to their class and encourage students to hop online with their parent or caregiver.
- 2. Display our promotional poster in a place where many eyes will see it.

Once the program starts, kids can head to cph.org/reads, where they'll find book lists, reading logs, and free activities. It's a rewarding, no-purchase-necessary experience for everyone.

Thank you for all you and your teachers do for your students in action and in prayer. We are blessed to journey with you in Jesus' name.

In Him.

Lisa M. Clark

CPH Editor, Author, Teacher, and Mom

Lisa M Clark

